Claims 1 - 7 (Canceled).

Claim 8 (Currently Amended). A golf glove system, comprising:

 a first glove;

 a second glove;

 each of said gloves including:

 a glove portion having finger and thumb portions and dorsal and palm portions, said dorsal and palm portions meeting along at least one conjoining lateral edge to define a pocket for receiving the eminence of a golfer's hand; and at least one of said gloves including a first pad comprising an elastomeric, non-flowing gel, said first pad being selectively positioned and dimensioned adjacent the palm portion of the glove, and at least one second pad dimensioned to at least partially encircle a user's wrist.

Claim 9 (Currently amended). The golf glove system according to claim 9 wherein at least one of said first and second pads ~~from one of said first and second gloves~~ is configured according to at least one of the golfer's hand dimensions and the golfer's hand position relative to a golf club grip which is held by the golfer during play.

Claim 10 (Canceled).

Claim 11 (New). A golf glove, comprising:

a glove portion including finger and thumb portions and dorsal and palm portions, said dorsal and palm portions meeting along at least one conjoining lateral edge to define a pocket for receiving the eminence of a golfer's hand; and at least one first pad selectively positioned and dimensioned proximate the palm portion of the glove and at least one second pad dimensioned to at least partially encircle a user's wrist.

Claim 12 (New) The golf glove according to claim 11 wherein said first pad is positioned and dimensioned in a manner to closely abut the golf club grip during substantially an entire swing movement.

Claim 13 (New). The golf glove according to claim 11 wherein said first pad is positioned and dimensioned to substantially cover the palmar portion adjacent the hypothenar eminence of the golfer's hand.

Claim 14 (New). The golf glove according to claim 11 wherein said first pad is positioned and dimensioned to substantially cover the palmar portion adjacent the third, fourth and fifth metacarpal bones of the golfer's hand.

Claim 15 (New). The golf glove according to claim 11 wherein a distal end of said first pad is positioned and dimensioned to abut the palmar portion adjacent the metacarpophalangeal joints of at least one of the third, fourth and fifth metacarpal bones of the golfer's hand.

Claim 16 (New). The golf glove according to claim 15 wherein a proximal end of said first pad is positioned and dimensioned to abut the hamulus of the hamate bone of the golfer's hand.

Claim 18 (New). A golf glove, comprising:

a glove portion including finger and thumb portions and dorsal and palm portions, said dorsal and palm portions meeting along at least one conjoining lateral edge to define a pocket for receiving the eminence of a golfer's hand; and at least one pad dimensioned to at least partially encircle a user's wrist.

Claim 19 (New). A golf glove according to claim 18 wherein said pad is made from at least one material selected from the group consisting of elastomeric, non-flowing gels, rubber, silicone and foam.
